HR10/02-14

The Human Resources Committee recommends, moved by Buzzell, seconded by Snider, to authorize Community Mental Health to purchase three 12-passenger vans at $58,203.00 from Great Lakes Ford of Muskegon, MI, and five mid-sized sedans at $70,280.00 from Great Lakes Ford of Muskegon, MI; and five 15-passenger sized vans at $102,300.00 from Mobility Transportation of Canton, MI; and five van conversions at $57,905.00 from Mobility Transportation of Canton, MI, for a total cost of $288,688.00.

Commissioner McMurray objected to the bid process where bidders responded with no bid on some items. Corporate Counsel Williams noted most dealers do not do conversions and some conversion companies do not sell vehicles.

Commissioner Nash objected to going out of County to a low bidder and suggested that the County could use a 5% rule.

Commissioner Engle suggested the Board needs to be more specific in it's purchasing policies.

Commissioner Scolnik noted we cannot exclude companies outside of Muskegon County if we expect other counties to purchase from Muskegon County businesses, that's part of a free economy.

Commissioner McMurray reiterated that bidders should be required to bid the complete package.
