Director of Public Health Kathy Moore addressed the Board regarding the Governor's Executive Order 2020-70. Discussion ensued.

CPS20/05 – 20 It was moved by Commissioner Foster, supported by Chairman Hughes, to address the 15% of people entering the Michael E. Kobza Hall of Justice that the courts' order does not cover to require face masks. Motion carried.

Administrator Mark Eisenbarth informed the Board that a draft COVID-19 Response Plan to return to work will be provided to the Board for review by Friday, May 8, 2020. Mr. Eisenbarth hopes to bring it to the Full Board under his report on Tuesday, May 12, 2020.

Administrator Mark Eisenbarth inquired of the Board whether they preferred Zoom or WebEx services. Discussion ensued.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Tony Barnes – Commented on District 5.

Ann Derouin – Commented on the redundancy for a mask order; was frustrated with WebEx; and encouraged the continuation of Zoom. Added it was a great meeting with Zoom as far as the public participating.

Sean Campbell – Commented that he preferred Zoom and had problems with WebEx; he will refuse to wear a mask; limited government.

Michael Haversen – Commented he preferred Zoom. Inquired whether the county building was answered. Mr. Eisenbarth responded it is by appointment only.

Commissioner Hovey-Wright commented that the peak of the COVID-19 has not hit yet and that we should not open.

James Kelly, Director of MSU Extension Office, addressed the board regarding MSU's use of Zoom, told the commissioners how great it is, informed them of some security guidelines, and offered to provide assistance in the use of Zoom.

Discussion ensued between commissioners regarding Zoom and WebEx.
